BURGER KING McLAMORE(SM) FOUNDATION RAISES MORE THAN $260,000 DURING 11th ANNUAL GOLF INVITATIONAL IN ATLANTIC CITY

More than 100 Supporters Gather at Galloway Golf Course to Benefit the BURGER KINGSM Scholars Program

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ - July 1, 2013 - The 11th Annual Jim McLamore Golf Invitational presented by the BURGER KING McLAMORESM Foundation raised more than $260,000 for the BURGER KINGSM Scholars program this year, setting a new fundraising record. The event is held annually in honor of the BURGER KING® brand’s co-founder, Jim McLamore, and his commitment to education. Over 100 franchisees, vendors and supporters had the opportunity to gather for three days of golf, food and camaraderie.

The event began with an intimate dinner in Atlantic City in celebration of the BURGER KINGSM Scholars program surpassing $20 million in total scholarships awarded since its inception in 2000. Throughout the next two days, 80 golfers took the greens at the beautiful Galloway National Golf Club in Galloway Township, NJ before participating in a silent auction that helped to raise additional funds for the Foundation.

The generous supporters of the event included franchisees from the north-east region as well as vendors and proponents from around the country. Long-time sponsors of the program include The Coca-Cola Company, Dr Pepper Snapple Group, & Heinz, among many others. Honored guests included members of the McLamore family; BURGER KING® first-lady Nancy McLamore and daughter Susie Bernardo. Steven M. Lewis, Chairman of the Board, BURGER KING McLAMORESM Foundation hosted the event.

"I feel both humbled and honored to be part of this event remembering Jim McLamore and his commitment to education," said Steven M. Lewis, president, US Restaurants, Inc. "This year the BURGER KINGSM Scholars program reached a huge milestone by awarding $20 million in scholarships. I am very proud of what we have accomplished so far and I know Jim would be pleased to have us 'paying it forward' on his behalf."
