(NASDAQ: AFCE), the franchisor and operator of Popeyes® Chicken & Biscuits, today announced the appointments of Richard Lynch as Chief Marketing Officer, effective March 1, 2008 and Ralph Bower as Chief Operations Officer of its Popeyes brand, effective immediately.

“Dick and Ralph are ideally suited to help accelerate the performance of Popeyes. Both are highly regarded leaders in their area of expertise and bring an impressive record of accomplishment to our Leadership Team,” said Cheryl Bachelder, AFC Enterprises CEO. “Serving as interim CMO for the last few months, Dick has already had a significant influence on our brand strategy. Ralph is an experienced operator in the chicken QSR and franchise industries that will quickly impact our restaurant operations. I am very excited to welcome them both to the Popeyes team.”

Mr. Lynch, age 53, will join AFC as CMO following his consultancy as interim CMO and after an impressive career in brand consulting and consumer strategy. He served as principal of GO LLC, a marketing consulting firm specializing in restaurant and food retail from 2003 to 2008, where he developed brand strategy and innovation plans for concepts including Burger King, Ruby Tuesday, and Buffalo Wild Wings. His experience extends beyond restaurant and food retail to include global branding strategy for such companies as IMG, the world’s largest sports marketing firm.

From 1982 to 2003, Mr. Lynch served as executive vice president at Campbell Mithun Advertising where he led the development of brand architecture and positioning for brands such as Domino’s Pizza, Martha Stewart Everyday and Betty Crocker. Mr. Lynch holds a Bachelor’s of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee.
Mr. Bower, age 45, joins AFC with extensive experience in general management and operations in the retail food service industry. Most recently, he was the KFC operations leader responsible for more than 900 KFC franchised restaurants in the western United States. Before joining Yum Brands in 2002, he was employed by Western Ohio Pizza, a franchisee of Domino’s Pizza, overseeing operations in Dayton, OH and Indianapolis, IN. He began his restaurant career with the second largest Domino’s franchise organization, Team Washington, where he was a regional supervisor. In each of these roles he has demonstrated exceptional leadership and performance results in the restaurant industry.
