AFC ENTERPRISES, INC. ANNOUNCES THE RESIGNATION OF CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The Company also Announces Appointment of Interim CEO and Creation of COO Position

Atlanta, Georgia, March 2, 2007 — AFC Enterprises, Inc. (NASDAQ: AFCE), the franchisor and operator of Popeyes® Chicken & Biscuits, announced the resignation of Kenneth L. Keymer, AFC, Chief Executive Officer and President effective March 30, 2007.

Mr. Keymer joined Popeyes in June 2004 as President and was promoted to AFC’s Chief Executive Officer in September 2005. Since that time, Mr. Keymer has been instrumental in re-energizing the Popeyes brand. Some of his many accomplishments while with AFC and Popeyes include assembling an experienced management team, accelerating new restaurant opening growth, strengthening franchisee relations, improving operations throughout the entire Popeyes system, and driving marketing initiatives with food-focused advertising.

The AFC Board of Directors has engaged a leading executive search firm to work with the Company to find a new chief executive with proven industry leadership.

The Company also announced the appointment of Frederick B. Beilstein, former Chief Financial Officer of AFC Enterprises from 2004-2005, as the interim Chief Executive Officer effective upon Mr. Keymer’s departure. Mr. Beilstein has been a Managing Partner of Equicorp Partners, LLC, an Atlanta-based investment and advisory services firm since 2005. Mr. Beilstein has remained an active consultant to AFC and the Popeyes brand since his departure. His day-to-day responsibilities will include working with the existing management team to oversee the execution of the Company’s operations.

AFC also announced the promotion of James W. Lyons, the Company’s Chief Development Officer, to the newly created position of Chief Operating Officer. AFC Chief Executive Officer Kenneth Keymer stated, “Working on the Popeyes brand with our talented and dedicated employees and franchisees has been one of the most rewarding experiences in my life. Deciding to resign was a very difficult decision, but I am at the point where I wanted to devote more time to personal interests and family considerations in Colorado. Today, the Popeyes’ Brand is well positioned, an experienced management team in place and our franchisees are excited about the prospect for growth. I believe Popeyes has unlimited potential to delight all of our guests, investors and franchisees.”

AFC Chairman Frank Belatti stated, “Ken has done an outstanding job and we thank him for his many significant contributions to the business over the past few years. We all wish him much success in the future. Today the Popeyes brand is in an excellent position and I am confident that the combined efforts of Fred as our interim CEO, Jim as our new COO, and the rest of the experienced management team, will continue to drive the brand forward and deliver the operational performance the Company has previously projected for 2007.”
