Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Beginning on May 28, 2020, Restaurant Brands International Inc. intends to share the following information, or portions thereof, in one or more meetings with investors and analysts.

Home Market Comparable Sales Update

As of the third full week of May:

- Tim Hortons Canada comparable sales were trending in negative mid-twenties up from the negative mid-forties in the second half of March
- Burger King US comparable sales were trending in negative mid-single digits up from the negative low-thirties in the second half of March
- Popeyes US comparable sales were trending in positive low-forties up from flat in the second half of March

Sequential improvement in comparable sales in our home markets has primarily been driven by the continued strength of our safe and convenient drive thru; the acceleration of our digital platforms, particularly in home delivery; growth in group orders and family bundles as an attractive and affordable dining option; and an overall improvement in guest perception of how our restaurant brands have positively responded to this crisis. For purposes of calculating comparable sales, if a restaurant is closed for a significant portion of a month, the restaurant is excluded from the monthly comparable sales calculation.

Restaurant Reopening Update

As of the third full week of May:

- Substantially all of our restaurants in our home markets remain open
- In Europe, Middle East and Africa approximately 60% of our restaurants are now open
- In Asia Pacific more than 85% of our restaurants are now open, including 98% of restaurants in China up from approximately 50% at the peak of the crisis
- In Latin America, approximately 50% of our restaurants are now open

Many of our restaurants continue to operate with limited services modes, however, we are in the process of fully reopening restaurants where appropriate with extensive safety precautions and in accordance with local and government guidance. We expect to continue our reopening process very carefully and with guest and team member safety as our top priority.
